

Blue Christmas

Written by Billy Hayes and Jay W. Johnson, first recorded by Doye O'Dell in 1948
The following year there were three separate recordings by Ernest Tubb, Hugo Winterhalter and Russ Morgan.
Elvis Presley made the song famous in 1957 on his Christmas Album and
The Beach Boys included it on an album in 1964

tacit.....D A7
I'll have a blue Christmas with--out you,

Em A7 D
I'll be so blue just thinking a--bout you

Am B7 Em
Deco--rations of red on a green Christmas tree

E7 A7 tacit.....
Won't be the same dear, if you're not here with me.

tacit..... D A7
And when those blue snowflakes start falling,

Em A7 D
That's when those blue memories start calling,

Am B7 Em
You'll be doing al--right, with your Christmas of white,

A7 Em A7 D
But I'll have a blue, blue, Christmas

tacit.....D A7
I'll have a blue Christmas, that's certain,

Em A7 D
And when that blue heartache starts hurting

Am B7 Em Bdim
You'll be doing al-right, with your Christmas of white,

A7 Em A7 D
But I'll have a blue, blue (blue, blue) Christmas.
