

Frosty the Snowman

as sung by Perry Como and written by Walter E. Rollins and Steve Nelson, 1950

C Frosty the Snowman was a jolly, happy soul,
F With a corncob pipe and a button nose
G7 And two eyes made out of coal.
F Frosty the Snowman is a fairy tale they say,
F He was made of snow but the children know
Dm How he came to life one day.

F There must have been some magic in that Dm Old silk hat they found,
G For when they placed it on his head,
Am He began to dance around.

C Frosty the Snowman was alive as he could be,
F And the children say he could dance and play
Dm Just the same as you and me.

C Frosty the Snowman knew the sun was hot that day,
F So he said, "Let's run, we'll have lots of fun
G7 Now before I melt away."
F Down in the village with a broomstick in his hand,
F Running here and there all around the square
Dm Saying, "Catch me if you can!"

F He lead them down the streets of town, right to a traffic cop,
G And he only paused one moment when Am He heard them holler, "Stop!"

C For Frosty the Snowman had to hurry on his way,
F But he waved goodbye, saying, "Don't you cry,
Am I'll be back a--gain some day!"
