

Hallelujah, Key of C, alternative lyrics by Judy Mello

This key of C version was submitted by Brad Barnett.

Background story:

Judy had been asked to sing at a Celebration of Life and because she absolutely loves this piece of music, she decided to re-write the lyrics so that there was no cutting of hair or tying someone to a kitchen chair, etc. If we ever perform this piece, Judy will sing the verses, we will be asked to sing the chorus with those attending the service. Yes, we may be asked to strum with her.

Verse 1: Now I've heard there was a secret chord,
That David played, and it pleased the Lord
From unknown words this message now comes to you
It goes like this, the fourth, the fifth
The minor fall, the major lift
The baffled king com--posing Hallelujah

CHORUS: Halle--lujah, Halle--lujah, Halle--lujah, Halle--lu-----jah (4) (4) (4)

Verse 2: Your faith is strong but you needed proof
You raised your head and there was no roof
The beauty of the moment over--threw you
The stars so bright in the darken night
Your Heart beat fast and your head felt light
And your arms reached out with a roaring Halle--lujah

CHORUS:

Verse 3: My heart is full of peace and Love
My sins forgiven I feel sure of
I've told the truth, I didn't come to fool you
And even though all may go wrong
I'll stand before the Lord in song
With nothing on my lips but Halle--lujah

CHORUS:

TO END THE SONG, STRUM ONE MORE: C(1)
