

It's My Lazy Day

by Smiley Burdette, recorded by Gene Autry in the movie Riders of the Whistling Pines

INTRO, my notes say only Larry is playing: C G C C
2 2 2 1

C
Well I might have gone fishing -- I been thinking it over.

C G7
The road to the river -- is a mighty long way.

C F
It must be the season -- no rhyme or no reason,
F C G7 C (4)
Just takin' it easy -- it's my lazy day.

C F
And never mind calling -- 'cause I ain't a-comin.'
C G7
Just pass on by me -- stay out of my way (Stay out of my way)
C F
'Cause a little deep thinking -- might drive me to drinking,
C G7 C (4)
Just takin' it easy. -- It's my lazy day.

C F
I'm findin' it easy -- to mind my own business
C G7
I'm keepin' my nose out -- of everyone's way.
C F
I'm takin' no orders -- ain't hirin' no people,
C G7 C (4)
Just takin' it easy. -- It's my lazy day.

INSTRUMENTAL: JUSTIN'S HARMONICA SOLO (strum to verse 1)

C F
Ain't asking no questions -- Ain't takin' advices,
C G7
Ain't doin' no datin' -- Ain't wanting to play.
C F
Just gonna look stupid -- Don't wanna meet Cupid,
C G7 C (4) A7(1)
Just takin it easy -- It's my lazy day

The A7 introduces the "modulate up for a change in key"

D G
Well I might have gone fishin' -- I been thinkin' it over.
D A7
The road to the river -- Is a mighty long way.
D G
It must be the season -- No rhyme or no reason,
G D A7 D
I'm takin' it easy -- It's my lazy day.
G D A7 D (4)
Just takin' it easy -- It's my lazy day.

Chords for "modulating up,"
for the change in key

