

Shark Attack

Laurie B. Ballard, September 11, 2012

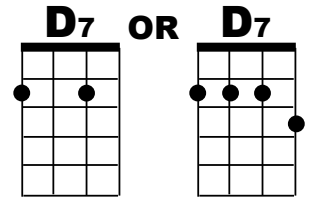

The song is based on Laurie and her brother's constant request for their father to repeat this true story over and over and over.

INTRO: G C G D7 G
4 4 2 2 4

G For cryin' out loud, he'd say with a grin
G Over and over and over again
G The spark in his eyes drew us closer to him
G To catch every word as he told it again.

CHORUS: G C G D One more time. One more time
G C Will ya tell us the story of the shark attack?
G D7 G Oh please, just one more time.

G For cryin' out loud, it's time for bed.
G These aren't the kind of stories to fill your head.
G It's late at night. The boogie man'll come.
G Carry you away 'til the morning sun.

CHORUS:

G 'Twas early in the morn, the sea was rough.
G A sailor got tangled with ropes and stuff
G He fell overboard and cried for help,
G Saw a big fin so hollered and yelped

G Then the shark took a bite of his arm
G Tossed him about to do him harm
G So the crew pulled him back to the deck on board
G D7 G But now, with just one arm.

FINAL CHORUS, SING TWICE TO END THE SONG

G C G D Ohhh, one more time, One more time
G C Will ya tell us the story of the shark attack?
G D7 G Oh, please Dad, one more time.
