

Singing the Blues

Written by Melvin Endsey and first recorded by Marty Robbins, 1956

INTRO: G C G D7
4 4 4 4

Well, I never felt more like singin' the blues
'Cause I never thought that I'd ever lose
Your love dear, why'd you do me this way?

Well, I never felt more like cryin' all night
'cause everythin's wrong, and nothin' ain't right
Without you, you got me singin' the blues.

CHORUS The moon and stars no longer shine
The dream is gone I thought was mine
There's nothin' left for me to do
But cry -- ay -- ay -- ay over you (cry over you)

Well, I never felt more like runnin' away
But why should I go 'cause I couldn't stay
With--out you, you got me singin' the blues.

HARMONICA SOLO OF VERSE 1, WE CAN STRUM SOFTLY

CHORUS The moon and stars no longer shine
The dream is gone I thought was mine
There's nothin' left for me to do
But cry -- ay -- ay -- ay over you (cry over you)

Well, I never felt more like singin' the blues
'Cause I never thought that I'd ever lose
Your love dear....why'd you do me this way?
(fading) ... why'd you do me this way?
... why'd you do me this way?
