VERSE 1

She played tambou--rine with a silver jingle
 And she must have known the words to at least a million tunes
 But the one most re--quested by the man she knew as "cowboy"
 Was the late night benedic--tion at the Y'all Come Back Sa--loon.

In a voice soft and trembling, she'd sing her songs to cowboy
 As a smoky halo circled round her raven hair
 And all the fallen angels and pinball playing rounders
 Stopped the games that they'd been playing for the losers evening prayer.

OR

BRIDGE:

Faded love and faded memories
 How the linger in her mind
 Miles and years played the cowboy
 Like and old melo--dy out of tune and out of time.

Every night in the shadows thinking back on Ama--rillo
 He'd dream of better days and ask for faded love
 Lifting high his glass in honor of the lady and her song
 He paid his check then lonely walked that broken cowboy home.
